Data Protection

NANSA is a Data Controller, and complies with the principles of GDPR. In implementing the legislation, Nansa adopts a simple and straightforward policy that is, so far as is possible, easy to understand and unambiguous in its application. This covers manual as well as computerised records.

The information which you give when completing your application form will be used in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation.

Application To Volunteer

Due to the nature of the work NANSA does we must follow safer recruitment guidance. Please read carefully and answer the following questions in each category:

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 and the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) (Amendment) Order 1986 provides that people in employment which is concerned with the provision of care or who carry out their duties wholly or partly on the premises where such provision takes place are obliged to disclose any convictions which would otherwise be spent.

Do you have any unspent convictions/ cautions? Yes No

Are you disqualified from working with children, young people or vulnerable adults? Yes No

Making a false statement or any attempt to conceal information regarding this declaration will lead to the rejection of your application for employment with this charity. Any details provided will be treated in the strictest confidence and will not automatically exclude anyone from being considered for any vacancy. NANSA DBS checks all staff and volunteers prior to starting.

Travel

NANSA has a minibus and cars which are used to transport service users to outreach locations. Whilst it is not always a requirement to have a driving licence, it is helpful to know which staff and volunteers can drive and what they can drive.

Are you a driver? Yes No

Do you have a category D1 licence? Yes No

Do you have any endorsements? Yes* No
